Todd Goffman
General Counsel

In addition to leading the legal team, Todd is responsible for corporate development, mergers and acquisitions, and managing legal compliance across the company's entire global footprint, which spans 187 countries.

He has more than 25 years of legal experience, including nearly 21 years as General Counsel of innovative, growth private and public companies, in addition to expertise in human resources, finance, M&A and corporate operations.

Prior to Globalization Partners', his experience includes leading the legal departments at Netcracker Technology Corporation, a subsidiary of NEC Corporation, Realitywave and Improv Systems, and advising public and venture-backed companies as a member of one of Boston's then largest law firms.

Todd is a graduate of the State University of New York at Stony Brook and Hofstra University School of Law.

Since 2015, Todd has been a volunteer strategic advisor to ThinkMD which was founded by two professors of Pediatrics at the University of Vermont College of Medicine with a focus on developing technology to eliminate preventable death in children around the world.
